QTR1 2018

A group of philanthropically minded, blockchain and crypto enthusiasts and business leaders, convened to develop a truly valuable, real-world case use for blockchain technology. Carebit was born.

MARCH 2018

Carebit's Proof-of Stake Blockchain, the first fully dedicated Non-Profit Charity Blockchain Ledger is born.

Q3 2018

Our Marketing team begins a widespread campaign to integrate and list CAREBIT on multiple exchanges, and exchange subsidiaries, including top 10 volume marketplaces.

JULY 2018

The Carebit Retail Adoption team begins discussions with multiple payment network processors to begin designs on a CAREBIT debit/payment card for direct real-world use of CARE coins for retail/vendors worldwide/especially those associated within the Charitable space.

AUGUST 2018

A leading and highly talented Dev team joins the CAREBIT team and journey, all new, upgraded wallets and Masternode platforms are released.

Carebit LTD is officially registered in the UK as a non-profit organization.

SEPTEMBER 2018

As the team keeps grows, attracting talent from across the globe, with specialized expertise, CAREBIT is fully rebranded, launching all new logo/trade dress/and Coin Ticker. The Marketing team begins work on an all new version of the Carebit website. The directors finish work on an all new business model/robust tech and is incorporated in an all new Whitepaper, full version and 1 page tear away sheet are released.

OCTOBER 2018

Carebit 2.0, the all new website goes online.

DECEMBER 2018

Web PFT
Development and subsequent Beta testing begins our Fund Tracking Tool, a real time, dynamic blockchain donation ledger and charitable donation tracking appliance bringing full TRUST and complete transparency to the charitable donation process.

JANUARY 2019

CAREDEX, Carebit's own decentralized exchange allowing for CARE token holders the proper volume and velocity for instant asset exchange, will go live.
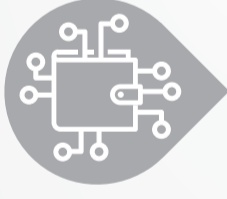

Q1 2019

Crypto Dust Donation Program will go live, upon forming initial Crypto Currency Exchange partnerships.

Q2 2019

Commencement of the CAREBIT Donation Program Phase 2: i.) ability for CAREBIT community to create specific Charity Project Initiative wallets; ii.) acceptance of donations in various major fiat currencies via third-party crypto banking partnerships, iii.) ability for Large Donors to establish specific Charity Project Initiatives of their own via the CAREBIT platform will become available, allowing large donors to have a great deal of control over the intended cause and distribution of their generous donation, and iv.) Masternode reward allocation for Charity Project Initiative volunteers.

Q2 2019

Targeted partnerships with 2-4 International Charities to be established and on-boarded into the CAREBIT Platform. The Global Strategy Team continues discussions with a multitude of Top-50 International Charities for partnership and subsumption into the CAREBIT network.

Q3 2019

Introduction of "Smart Wallets" within the CAREBIT platform, enabling a fully trustless donation funds distribution mechanism based on pre-determined/established Charity Initiative protocols. The wallet will come with a detailed transaction reporting structure and Charity organization management tools. Marketing of this product shall target developing world regional governance, allowing and empowering localized use of the Carebit platform for micro-level and direct cause-to-cause charitable fundraising.

Q4 2019

Care Alliance will be introduced, with the goal to bind together mid-large Charity organizations and support services companies in an authoritative blockchain consortium, for the promotion of Transparency within the Charitable Industry. Care Alliance seeks to establish a gold standard in Charity operations/compliance protocols.